AGREED ORDER MODIFYING SUPERVISED RELEASE

Before the Court is the May 31, 2011, petition and the July 6, 2011 motion to revoke the Defendant's five-year supervised-release term, which began on or about March 3, 2008, for his 2002 Class B narcotics felony. Through their signatures below, the parties and probation office have requested that the Court modify, rather than revoke, the Defendant's supervised release.

The Court agrees and orders that:

1. Reimposition of earlier imposed supervised-release conditions. Unless otherwise indicated herein, all mandatory, standard, and special conditions of supervised release previously imposed on the Defendant in this case shall remain in full force and effect, including but not limited to substance-abuse treatment and testing as directed by the probation office.

2. Special supervised-release conditions added. The Defendant shall-- Residential treatment. For ninety (90) days, reside at and participate in in-patient drug treatment at Lifetime.

3. Defendant's admission of premodification violations. The Defendant admits that from September 2010 through May 2011, he possessed and used cocaine and marijuana on several occasions as outlined in the petition to revoke. In addition, the Defendant admits that he failed to report for the submission of a urine specimen in May of 2011.

4. Subsequent use of premodification violations. At any time before supervision in this case expires or as otherwise allowed by law, the Court, probation office, or the government may institute revocation proceedings under 18 U.S.C. § 3583(e)(3), (g)(1), (g)(3), and/or otherwise, based upon the Defendant's prior supervised-release violations, including any which have prompted the modifications embraced by this Order or a prior order of the Court, if the Court, probation officer, or government, in the sole discretion of any of them, determines that the Defendant has not, subsequent to the filing of this Order, complied fully with any supervision condition.

5. Custody directive. The Defendant shall remain in custody until placed at Lifetime.

6. Defendant's waiver of rights. The Defendant, with the assistance of counsel, urges that the Court forthwith and without any further hearing enter this agreed order; and, in so doing, the Defendant—having read and understood the revocation petition and this Order, having thoroughly discussed them with his attorney, and having agreed to the terms of this Order—knowingly and intelligently waives his right to any hearing, under the Constitution, FED. R. CRIM. P. 32.1(c) and 43, 18 U.S.C. § 3583(e)(2), or any other authority.

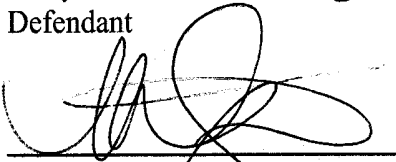

SO ORDERED on July 12, 2011.
